

Nation's Clergymen Pray for Randolph Movement

The Courier Salutes

DAVID BROWN

Political equality came last week to Negroes in the State of South Carolina on the heels of an order by United States Judge J. Waties Waring ordering the Democratic party in that State to open its ranks to Negroes who want to register and vote in the Democratic party. That order came as a result of a court suit filed by David Brown of Beaufort, S. C.—a Negro.

It was the death knell of South Carolina's "white" primary which had infamously denied one-half of the citizens of that State the right to have a voice in electing those who were to rule them, for in the last year of the South—the Democratic rule South Carolina has completely automatically means election. Thus the order opened the party doors to Negroes and a fight which had dragged since Reconstruction Days.

Because of the courage he displayed in fighting the cause of the center where lectures and workery and education classes have been held for some time.

Seventeen white and four Negro diversity students were taken into custody by city detectives after performing a "folly" in the course of protest. The officers claimed they had received reports of interracial dancing at the building where the students were held for some time.

Several white men were said to have been milling angrily around the building when police arrived. Charges of disorderly conduct and disturbance of a place against the arrested persons. An additional charge of giving false information was placed against Miss Ruth Williams, identified as a staff member of the Georgia Workers Educational Service.

Frank McCullister informed police that the workers' unit had nothing to do with the dance alleged by the officers.

The Rev. A. J. Hinkle, white, who is director of an inter-racial, inter-denominational group meeting at Gammon Theological seminary on the campus and sponsored by the Fellowship of Southern Churches.

The students were interested in the present conditions of the South, he said. When accused he said, "We are merely a group of students who are interested in the Christian or a Christian, he demoted himself as a minister."

The Rev. J. R. Thomas, acting president of Gammon, said that his school was not responsible for the scene which occurred the night before. He said, "If the students were to be turned back and the incident erased—that would be a good thing."

ARRESTED

Arrested on charges of disorderly conduct were William W. Hines, Betty Bennett, Bob Ross and B. D. Walker, colored, and the following whites:

Russell Henry, Roger A. Letts, Charlotte, Va.; Albert Phillips, Greenville, Ga.; George Younger, W. Chastrow, David Andrew, Richard Thatcher, E. F. Harwood, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hinkle, Jean D. Altman, Rosalind Oakes, Edith Lewis, Vidalia; Helen Lewis, Emory University; Mrs. Mary Godby and Carolyn Hancock.

Case Postponed

Mixed Dance Irks Georgia; 21 Arrested

(Special to the Courier)

ATLANTA, Ga.—City Police Recorder A. W. Callaway last week postponed until Aug. 20 a case involving alleged interracial dancing at the Georgia Workers Educational Center.

Seventeen white and four Negro diversity students were taken into custody by city detectives after performing a "folly" in the course of protest. The officers claimed they had received reports of interracial dancing at the building where the students were held for some time.

Several white men were said to have been milling angrily around the building when police arrived. Charges of disorderly conduct and disturbance of a place against the arrested persons. An additional charge of giving false information was placed against Miss Ruth Williams, identified as a staff member of the Georgia Workers Educational Service.

Frank McCullister informed police that the workers' unit had nothing to do with the dance alleged by the officers.

The Rev. A. J. Hinkle, white, who is director of an inter-racial, inter-denominational group meeting at Gammon Theological seminary on the campus and sponsored by the Fellowship of Southern Churches.

The students were interested in the present conditions of the South, he said. When accused he said, "We are merely a group of students who are interested in the Christian or a Christian, he demoted himself as a minister."

The Rev. J. R. Thomas, acting president of Gammon, said that his school was not responsible for the scene which occurred the night before. He said, "If the students were to be turned back and the incident erased—that would be a good thing."

ARRESTED

Arrested on charges of disorderly conduct were William W. Hines, Betty Bennett, Bob Ross and B. D. Walker, colored, and the following whites:

Russell Henry, Roger A. Letts, Charlotte, Va.; Albert Phillips, Greenville, Ga.; George Younger, W. Chastrow, David Andrew, Richard Thatcher, E. F. Harwood, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hinkle, Jean D. Altman, Rosalind Oakes, Edith Lewis, Vidalia; Helen Lewis, Emory University; Mrs. Mary Godby and Carolyn Hancock.

Railroad Bias

School Head Jailed; Sues For $25,000

RICHMOND, Va.—William C. Parnell, head of the Richmond School for Negroes, has filed suit in Federal District Court in a damage suit for $25,000 against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company and its agent, R. Lambeth, one of its conductors, for alleged racial discrimination.

While returning from the Republican National convention at Philadelphia, he stated, he was "unlawfully" arrested at Richmond to be taken to a coach which was "reserved" for other coaches, "solely because he was a Negro."

He was permitted to retain the coach but later Lambeth told a Greenville County Court that "he was notified by the arrest and imprisonment of the plaintiff" and the disorderly conduct charge was dropped.

Further recommendations and approval of the membership included a $25,000 estate seminar prior to and after the convention.

ATLANTIC CITY—A vigorous fight to the finish against all kinds of restrictive covenants in the United States was pledged by members of the one-year-old National Association of Real Estate Brokers at its first convention, July 19-20, in Convention Hall.

Further recommendations and approval of the membership included a $25,000 estate seminar prior to and after the convention.

REALTORS' CONVENTION—Atlantic City was the scene last week of the National Real Estate Brokers' first convention. Officers are, left to right (seated): Horace Sudduth of Cincinnati, vice president; W. D. Morrison of Detroit, president; F. Henry Williams of Jacksonville, Fla., secretary; Lerner Roberts of Philadelphia, executive committee. Second row: Walter A. Miller of New York, regional vice president; Carleton W. Gaines of Detroit, board of directors; Walter H. Aiken of Atlanta, Ga., president of National Home Builders Association; A. Macco Smith of Dallas, Tex., executive committee. Third row: Norman W. Robinson, assessor for City of New York; Clarence Johnson, Federal Housing Administration; and Hilliard R. Robinson, Washington, D. C., architect. Inset: Atty. William A. Dart, president of the Atlantic City Board of Trade and assistant Prosecutor, welcomes the real estate brokers and their president, Walter D. Morrison, with the key to the city.

Restrictive Covenants Target of NAREB Meet

ATLANTIC CITY—A vigorous fight to the finish against all kinds of restrictive covenants in the United States was pledged by members of the one-year-old National Association of Real Estate Brokers at its first convention, July 19-20, in Convention Hall.

Further recommendations and approval of the membership included a $25,000 estate seminar prior to and after the convention.

ATLANTIC CITY—A vigorous fight to the finish against all kinds of restrictive covenants in the United States was pledged by members of the one-year-old National Association of Real Estate Brokers at its first convention, July 19-20, in Convention Hall.

Further recommendations and approval of the membership included a $25,000 estate seminar prior to and after the convention.

HOUSEWIVES' CONFAB—The National Housewives League convened last week at Atlantic City, N. J. Officers of the organization are, left to right (seated): Christina M. Fuqua of Detroit, president; Nanette E. Black of Detroit, recording secretary. Standing: Ernestine Mahan of Cincinnati, assistant secretary; Mary A. Tunnicliffe of Boston, regional chairman; Ella M. Martin of Boston, financial secretary.—Hawkins Photo.

in conjunction with the annual mid-winter meetings, united effort by the association to raise the standards of its members nationally, employment of a secretary to the still small office of the association, and the establishment of a national home and headquarters, owned by the association and operated under the supervision of a national trustee board.

The NAREB, organized in July, 1947, in Tampa, Fla., during the annual convention and under the sponsorship of the National Negro Business League, heard many prominent and eloquent speakers and panel discussions and general sessions.

The purpose of the NAREB was set forth by Walter A. Miller, regional vice president of the NAREB, Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, New York, George W. Hood, chartered life underwriter of Detroit, delivered an address on "The Interest of Negro Insurance Companies in the Mortgage, Investment and Real Estate Fields." Address was also heard by Hope Stevens, general counsel for the NAREB; Paul Robinson and John H. Hartman of New York, executive of the NAREB.

lasted discrimination and segregation during both the Republican and Democratic conventions. Mrs. Graham made the point that there was no need for protest demonstrations during the convention of the liberal Progressive party because racial integration was an accomplished fact in the entire structure of this new party.

PHILADELPHIA—The fact that the Pittsburgh Courier Press Service Convention Hall for the Progressive party convention was dramatically spotlighted in an address delivered by Mrs. Shirley Graham, author before the opening session of the party's founding convention here last Friday night.

"Pointing out that pickets pro-

Day of Prayer for Youths Planning to Resist Registration

By THEODORE STANFORD
(Courier's New York Bureau)

NEW YORK—Many of the nation's clergymen pastoring Negro, white and inter-racial churches from coast-to-coast, are reported to have planned a day of prayer for youths in 18 to 25 who will refuse to register in the drive against racial segregation in the United States, according to an announcement made this week by A. Philip Randolph, chairman of the League for Non-Violent Civil Disobedience Against Military Registration. Mr. Randolph stated that 100 white and Negro ministers will be asked to participate in the day of prayer.

LOS ANGELES—Arrived on instructions from A. Philip Randolph, chairman of the League for Non-Violent Civil Disobedience Against Military Registration, the Los Angeles chapter of the league has issued a concerted drive to organize forces for the fight against pickets in the Army and Navy.

Dawson Launches Truman Offense

WASHINGTON—The selection of President Truman by the Negro community has been hailed as a help to the fight against racial segregation.

Conventions which are being held in many parts of the country are being held to help the cause of the Negro people.

President Truman will be asked to help the cause of the Negro people.

President Truman will be asked to help the cause of the Negro people.

Re-Colors Hair in 22 Minutes

NEW YORK—A new hair coloring process is being advertised as a quick and easy way to change hair color.

The process is said to be safe and effective.

The process is said to be safe and effective.

LONGER HAIR

FREE! 100% SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

STYLING

STYLING

STYLING

Amazing Values!

FEATHER CURLS $7.50

The new look in hair beautifully designed hair—Made possible with this new attachment.

In Gray, $2.00 extra

CHIGNONS

Glow with beauty in this new hair treatment. Made of purest Hagen Hair and designed to give you the most beautiful hair.

In Gray, $1.00 extra

each $2.75

GRECIAN ROLLS

A superior Grecian Roll of great versatility. Can be used as a hair or a neck. Designed to give you the most beautiful hair.

In Gray, $2.00 extra

each $5.98

PAGE BOY

Sharply designed, superbly constructed Page Boy hair attachment. Made of purest Hagen Hair and designed to give you the most beautiful hair.

In Gray, $1.00 extra

each $2.75